As the deer pants for streams of water,
so my soul pants for you, O God.
My soul thirsts for God, for the living God.
When can I go and meet with God?
My tears have been my food day and night,
while men say to me all day long,
"Where is your God?"
These things I remember as I pour out my soul how I used to go with the multitude,
leading the procession to the house of God,
with shouts of joy and thanksgiving among the festive throng.
Why are you downcast O my soul?
Why so disturbed within me?
Put your hope in God, for I will yet praise Him, my Savior and my God!

Psalm 42:1-5

THE FUNERAL

- Helps confirm the reality and finality of death.
- Provides a climate for mourning and expression of grief.
- Allows the sorrows of one to become the sorrows of many.
- Is one of the few times love is given and not expected in return.
- Is a vehicle for the community to pay its respects.
- Encourages the affirmation of religious faith.
- Is a celebration of a life that has been lived as well as a sociological statement that a death has occurred.
